Some of Your Local Authors

Andrea Costantine is the co-author of How to Bring Your Book to Life and This Year: An Exploratory Guidebook on Writing and Self-Publishing, and she believes that there's a book in everyone—including you! Andrea will be sharing information about writing and publishing.

Melissa Kline has been passionate about writing since a very early age and has published a variety of short stories and personal essays. Lucky Press published her debut Young Adult science fiction novel, My Beginning in 2011, which won the Halloween Book Festival Award.

Donna DeNomme is an award-winning internationally published author of Turtle Wisdom: Coming Home to Yourself and the Ophelia's Oracle series. Donna has assisted others with manifesting their creative visions since 1991. She will be sharing breaking news about her newest creative project!

Mary Ramstetter is a life-long Golden resident and is an award-winning writer of both fiction (El Dorado Trilogy) and nonfiction (John Gregory Country) about the Golden Gate Canyon area and the Mountain West.

Jan Haas is author of the inspirational Moving Mountains-One Woman's Fight to Live Again and a contributing author in the women's anthology Speaking Your Truth, Volume One.

Kate Derrinos-Rickle co-author of I Am Not Supposed to Be Here, sustained a dramatic brain injury from a motorcycle crash that left her near death. Kate's book tells the story of her stunning recovery, followed by a mysterious setback and the love and devotion of her husband Shawn, who helped her return from the brink of death to full recovery.
